10 reasons why #SS4C17 in Budapest was awesome

Smart cities are engaged cities. So said Usman Haque from Umbrellium in his keynote at the Empowering smart solutions for better cities conference on 2 & 3 October in Budapest.

The same thing goes for events. 2 days. 40 speakers. 150 participants. 150 stories told. 30 successes shared. 11 challenges solved. Outstanding engagement.

There you will find photos from the conference, the event story on social media and success stories presentations.

A massive thank you to all who participated and see you at the next engaged event!
